

Characterizations of polyharmonic and real analytic functions

Grzegorz Łysik

Institute of Mathematica PAN, Poland

lysik@impan.pl

Session: 17. Functional Analysis: relations to Complex Analysis and PDE

We give characterizations of polyharmonic and real analytic functions in terms of integral means. The characterizations justify introduction of definitions of polyharmonic and real analytic functions on metric measure spaces.