Turbulence revisited

Jindrich Zapletal

University of Florida, U. S. A. zapletal@math.ufl.edu

Session: 32. Set Theory

I will provide several new ergodic applications of Hjorths concept of turbulence. In particular, I will prove that every Borel homomorphism from a turbulent equivalence relation to an equivalence relation which admits graphing that is simple in some way, must stabilize on a comeager set.